RMB Capital Expands At 115 South LaSalle Street

Growing Investment Advisory Firm Utilizes Flexibility Options to Accommodate Its Continued Growth

Chicago, IL-December 16, 2013- RMB Capital (RMB), an independent investment advisory firm with more than $3.7 billion in assets under management (AUM), has elected to lease additional space and remain at 115 South LaSalle. The company leased an additional 5,800 square feet – bringing its total to more than 23,000 square feet – in an agreement negotiated by global commercial real estate services firm, Studley.

Since RMB moved to the building in 2007, the company has experienced significant growth and expansion. RMB needs to accommodate not only more employees, but also more distinct business units – wealth management, asset management, alternative investments and retirement plan consulting.

Studley guided RMB through the process of evaluating relocation options, since terminating the existing lease was a possibility. Ultimately, Studley secured additional space for RMB in a tight building and preserved future flexibility. “Since moving into the building, RMB has increased AUM by 175% and has more than doubled their headcount – and they expect growth to accelerate,” remarks Rick Schuham, Executive Vice President of Studley, who advised RMB. “We initially designed a lease that provided them ultimate flexibility in case they met or exceeded their business goals. Because they exceeded them, we were able to activate their flexibility options to address their needs – at least for the next few years. When they outgrow this space, we’ll work with them to find the next solution.”

Studley has been the company’s partner and real estate advisor since the firm began in 2005. According to Richard M. Burrige, Jr., co-founder, CEO and Chief Investment Officer for RMB, “Our real estate solutions have always proven to be an asset to our business. Studley has provided us with outstanding advice, insight and advocacy from day one. With their guidance, we’ve been able to maintain our primary focus of providing exceptional service to our clients.”

In 2011, RMB expanded to be closer their growing number of clients in the West by opening offices in Denver and Jackson Hole, Wyoming. RMB expects to open offices in other cities, as well, perhaps adding another in 2014.
